NEW APPOINTMENTS

New British Union
National Liaison Officer
Canada

My name is David Clark, I have been asked to take on the duties of a National Liaison Officer for Canada. A new email where you can reach me will be ready in a day or two. It will be NBUCanada.18@shaw.ca

The Leader has asked me to say a few words about my background. I am now a writer. I am currently working on a book about the fascist parties of England and Canada in the inter-war period. I worked in government for over 30 years. I am university educated. I am descended from English people who left England in the 1600's and again in 1906.

I became aware of the revolutionary ideas of Sir Oswald Mosley while in university. His ideas were so far ahead of his time in the 1930's to the 1960's that all political parties could not fathom them. Even today, the self-serving tired old political parties and their hacks still don't understand Mosley's ideas.

I particularly liked his thoughts on preserving green space. Canada is far behind England in losing our green spaces but much is being concreted over even here.

I also particularly liked Mosley's ideas on preserving farmland and encouraging more organic farming and supporting family farms. There is a bumper sticker I have seen here; "No Farms, No Food" and yet the political parties keep allowing subdivisions of farm land.

Mosley's thoughts on keeping the costs of health care down seem very real to me. He encouraged fitness at all levels, from children to seniors, in order to keep obesity, diabetes and other diseases down and keep people out of the hospitals.

Finally, Mosley's ideas on restructuring government to get rid of the old political parties and yet give every one of the English people representation in parliament are exciting. Imagine a housewife, industrial worker, white collar worker, doctor, nurse, fisherman, and so forth having a representative in parliament. Parliament then, would not be a self-serving monolithic combative entity that never gets anything done.

NBU Regional Officer South England

My name is Ken Kearsey, I've always been politically aware and active. As a young man I was idealistic and naïve and joined the Socialist Workers party aged sixteen. I was a member of the Labour party during my years working for Royal Mail as a training officer. My journey to Fascism has been a gradual one over the years as it's become increasingly apparent that Socialism/Communism and the left generally do not have the solutions to our nation's problems and concerns. I now work for a small family contract cleaning business mainly carrying out work for social services, horders, evictions, adaptations etc.

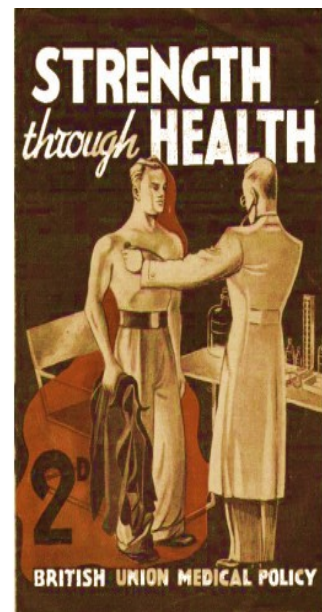

It's not glamorous work but someone has to do it and it's great fun. I am a Vegan and have always been involved with animal rights/welfare organisations, hunt sabs, animal aid, etc. I am a committed Christian and currently training with the Church of England. I am a member of "The Gideons International" Christian business men's association. I have a daughter, Sarah 34, who is an assistant practitioner at the eye unit at a General Hospital and my son Adam, 32 also works at the General as a maintenance engineer.

NBU Youth Corp Leader

My name is Louie Kingsbury my father is South West Regional Officer Ken Kingsbury. I'm a firm believer of Fascism and I have been for a long time, I've seen many people slander the acts of Fascism under scapegoating and other excuses but I feel that it's an idealistic way of building a nation. I've actually been thoroughly impressed that a group like the New British Union exists and that we're bringing Fascism from Mosley's era to ours and how devoted all the members are to making a change in our communities to make them as best as they can.

I hope that the policies and acts of the New British Union don't go to waste and we can create an ideal by and for British people where we can reunite our communities and our society.

Imperium Europa and Norman Lowell.

Who is Norman Lowell?

Norman Lowell is the originator of the high-political movement established in Malta in the year 2000. From an early age Mr Lowell met important people in the political spectrum. Including those that were very close to Sir Oswald Mosley. Including Jeffrey Hamm, and also corresponded for some time with Sir Oswald Mosley's wife - Lady Diana Mosley.

Norman Lowell and Jeff Hamm

Imperium Europa, an IDEA first expressed and discussed in a series of articles published in a leading Maltese newspaper. For one of which Mr Lowell was sentenced to two years imprisonment suspended for four years. Norman Lowell explains and emphasizes that Europe must be united. From Ireland to Vladivostok. To Mosley supporters this IDEA immediately rings a bell. For Mosley already proposed it, but couldn't implement it, - for one simple reason: The 'Iron curtain'. The 'Iron Curtain' made it impossible for Sir Oswald Mosley to achieve his dream. However, it is possible, very possible in the age we are living in. But how one may ask?

The current European Union is at the lowest level. - Economics and Finance. Therefore, the 'pyramid' is topsy turvy. Therefore it would soon, very soon crumble since it has no unifying IDEA. Yet, still it can be changed from a European Union (EU Economic Union) to a Nova Europa and then, into an Imperium Europa.

Unlike the present European Union, the coming Imperium Europa would have free regions instead of Nation States.

"For when Nations are dead, Europe is born" - Francis P Yockey. (Un Europa delle regioni, e' dei popoli). A Europe of Regions and Peoples. All organically independent - each to his own, instead of 'one size fits all'.

With the IDEA of regions and peoples, Europe wouldn't face another fratricidal war between European brotherhood - Provoked by our internal enemy, just like previous two World Wars.

The 'Imperium' per se would be divided in two; 'Imperium' and 'Dominium'.

Imperium; The masculine side of politics. Two million of the very best sons of Europe, The Elite would be chosen to lead Imperium Europa. They would be chosen from the top, by those who already proved themselves, those who have a high panoramic view of Culture and High Politics - and not democratically elected from the bottom - voted by those who do not have any knowledge of politics.

The other side of Imperium Europa would be the 'Dominium' - The feminine side of politics. In a broad outline this would be the regions as explained previously. Regions all of which would be protected and guarded by the 'Imperium'. The Imperium would never dictate anything what should and what shouldn't be decided in the regions. – They would be free to maintain their Traditions, customs, dialects, regional laws. All such matters fall in the realm of the Dominium, the Regions.

The Elite of Imperium Europa would concern themselves solely on the following five prerogatives:

Spirituality;
Cosmotheism

Race; Anglo-Saxons, Teutons, Slavs and Latins

High Culture

High Politics

Spirituality; the spirituality of the Elite would be Cosmotheism. However, the common people in the 'Imperium' would be free to pick up and follow any religion desired. The Semitic religions would gradually dissolve - not through imposition, but with the example from the Elite. A 'new' Belief would be 'promoted'. - Christology. In a broad outline it distinguishes between Christ the Aryan and Jesus the Jew. Christology would be the faith of the common people. Malta would be the spiritual focal point to all Europeans. Just like Mecca is to the Muslims.

Race; the 'Imperium' would be an Imperium for Europids only. To be qualified to live within the 'Imperium' one must be of a European genetic background. And those who do qualify would be able to live anywhere within Imperium Europa. The Europeans per se are divided into four sub-categories: Anglo-Saxons, Teutons, Slavs and Latins and the Imperium would encourage judicious intermingling of these sub-races.

Eman W Cross and Norman Lowell

High Culture; Culture is a fundamental issue when it comes to the people. Higher Forms of Life, of culture would be promoted. - Very different from the culture we are living with. As Julius Evola wrote; "E una rivolta contro il mondo moderno" (A revolt against the modern world).

From a very young age youths, who after all, are the future of our beloved Europa, would be taught to love, respect and honour the heritage of their ancestry. Pay tribute to their forefathers who fought for them to live today as Europids. And for them to understand that Europeans gave the world everything - and a world without Europeans, the world we now know and take for granted, would cease to exist. Yes, the Elite would be the 'Role Model' for the youth.

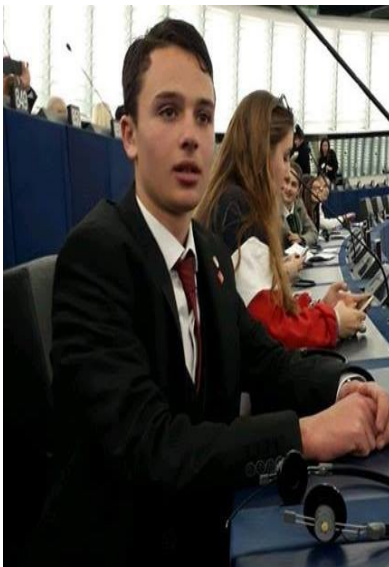

High Politics; The word High Politics is not understood by the current politicians – they are at the lowest level, concerning themselves as to the next elections, bickering among themselves. They have no vision. Politicians today are superficial, obsessed over superficial issues.

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

And the people are kept at the lowest level, cheering football teams and coloured players. They do not know any better. In the Imperium such petty politicians would naturally be replaced with statesmen, I leaders that were bred, destined for leadership and think ahead about the real issues confronting the White Race.

*Eman W Cross
At the European Parliament*

We in Malta representing the great IDEA are confident that we will win seats in the EU parliament in May 2019. There, we will be a clarion call, a magnet for all patriotic forces to come together and change this EU into Nova Europa, eventually Imperium Europa. We Will Win!

HOW NBU OPERATES

With the rapid growth in our movement I would like to take this opportunity to explain our present situation for the benefit of new and some old members.

NBU is not a political party, under the unfair first past the post system small parties can not hope to win seats, UKIP after 25 years for example have no MP's. We have no interest in wasting time effort and money fighting every five years in elections we will not win.

Our aim is to get fellow fascists into town halls by standing as Independent candidates, which we have already had success doing. Also members should join club/sports committees, school councils, all types of community or campaigning groups, this way we will be laying concrete foundations for the future. This was a tried and tested tactic carried out by Mussolini's Blackshirts back in the twenties and used by Mosley in the thirties to have people in place for when crisis came about. People not politicians isn't just a slogan it is what NBU is all about. This approach is low key and often covert so not suited to would be politicians interested only in flag waving wearing rosettes and thinking of how much they can make! NBU want people willing to work for the benefit of our country and folk in their own communities concentrating on local issues and local politics.

Every officer is a local hero in my eyes, they have truly stood up to be counted. I cannot stress enough how important it is to have people in place ready to lead. You may feel you are not achieving anything but nothing could be further from the truth. You are all inspirational , just talking to people and breaking down barriers is a paramount important first step. Spreading the word creates a sea in which we can swim.

We are getting noticed, recently appearing on ITV

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

Ireland and about to record an interview with ITV Wales, we also will be featuring in a documentary coming up on Vice. People are talking about us which in turn helps us grow even bigger. So if you are looking for flashing lights and bells you may be disappointed but if you want steady growth and really care about your community then NBU is your natural home.

LOSS OF NATIONAL CHARACTER

In England, as well as in Canada, anyone that has been around for five decades or more, will realize that the national character of their country has changed appreciably.

In Canada, in the 1950 to 1960's era, there were Chinese descended from the railway builders and gold miners, almost no blacks, a few East Indians and no Muslims. The essential character of Canada consisted of western Europeans with English, Scottish, Irish, Scandinavian, Italian, French and German members, etc. In other words a very Eurocentric population.

This meant that everyone generally got along. They were mostly all white.

Today, the socialist and liberal governments in Canada have allowed mass immigration of Haitians, Muslims, central African blacks, East Indians and asians of all types. The European character of Canada is now gone. A similar situation has occurred in England.

One common trait of socialist, liberal and communist governments is to reduce the national character to the lowest common denominator.

This is done by globalization and multiculturalism. By eliminating the better part of society (the Europeans) the chances of the government being called to account for its actions are vastly reduced.

Just as in England, the job of bringing the historical character of the country back to what it was, can only be done by adopting Sir Oswald Mosley's principles which are those of the New British Union.

THE QUIET REVOLUTION

It is indeed refreshing to see intelligence and new tactics like this. I don't know, of course, how many Independents from the NBU have made it into town council elections; but the premise is absolutely correct. Too many "parties," there in Britain and here in the US, have done the same old thing and expected different results; as Einstein said, that's one definition of insanity. Far too many have been "costume clubs" that never ran a single candidate for anything. Now, on a national level, we all know that the entrenched powers will not be unseated by a third party coming at them in elections. BUT THAT ISN'T REALLY THE POINT! The point is to get people, on a grass-roots level, to start thinking "outside the box" in the first place. Fascist revolution is, first and foremost, a revolution in THOUGHT. Other forms may well be needed later -- but this is the place to start.

sweeping back the tide:

Fascism Is The One True
Faith For The Future!

-- Seth Tyrssen

Times change, people change, societies change, mighty empires lie forgotten in the dust of history. But never before have we faced crisis to this level, and this degree.

The reason for that is basically two-fold; our world is now more overpopulated than it has ever been, and, technology has advanced to a level never before seen. We are bombarded with EMF waves from all the gadgetry we watch, speak on, listen to, and carry around with us. Oceans are filling with plastic, something they've never had to deal with in the past, and from which they cannot recover, without our help. Nations no longer have the social identity of a single people, but are a "mixed bag" of different peoples with different cultures, different values. The list goes on and on.

Humanity as a species, alas, has not changed all that much. Materialistic greed still runs rampant, and indeed, rules over us. Genuinely spiritual values, in whatever form, generally take a "back seat" to this. The problems of the moment often blind us to the possibilities of the future.

Ever since tribes banded together to form nations, humanity has sought the ideal system of government, balancing social order with individual freedom. Many, if not most, have settled upon some form of "representative democracy," though there may be a figurehead monarch, a symbol carried over from a country's earlier times.

Some have adopted a hive-mind, which always perverts itself into a small upper class of rulers, and a great mass of those who are ruled. The people in such societies are told that The People are all-important, but that they, as individuals, are worthless. "Representative democracies" are actually little better, giving the illusion of greater personal "freedom" through a variety of goods, services, and entertainments.

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

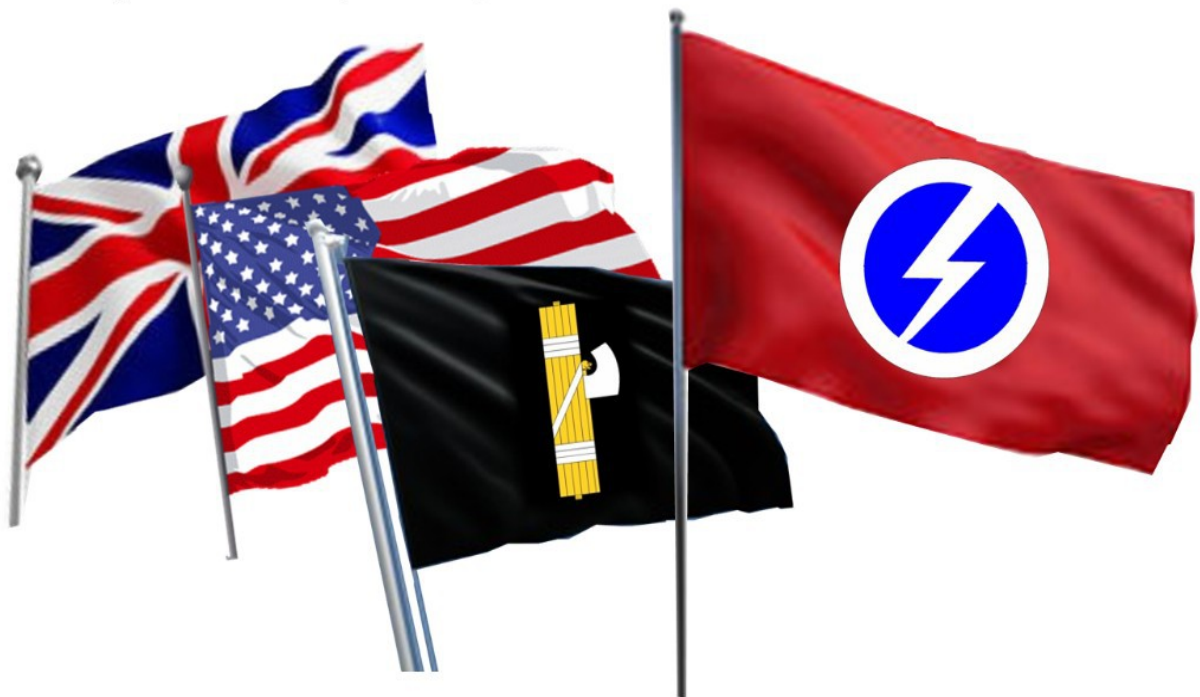

But in all of history, only one philosophy has truly achieved that balance of order and individuality so desired: Fascism.

The left is always carping that social evolution inevitably leads to Socialism, but what is Socialism? It consists of a minority of workers who are heavily taxed, to support a majority of the non-working populace.

And “representative democracy” (republics, if you will) are always ruled by money, and while money can certainly be a good thing, it is overseen by a small clique of international bankers, who can and do control national directions and destinies.

Fascism is nature. It acknowledges the need for a strong leader with a vision and goals to improve the lot of his (or her) people, their nation, and their world. It encourages individual initiative, and indeed, demands it; for Fascism is a meritocracy, dedicated to a healthy society. It recognizes that we are caretakers, not masters, of this planet -- and consequently works in harmony with nature, opposing the destruction of the Earth.

Fascism encourages community spirit, even while it encourages individual abilities. There will always be differences between individuals, peoples, and nations. That is as it should be! But wherever we may be, Fascists will always be dedicated to their own people and nation, first and foremost. We are not obligated to accomodate others at our expense, ultimately resulting in our own destruction.

The left is always carping that social evolution inevitably leads to Socialism, but what is Socialism? Often, it consists of a minority of workers who are heavily taxed, to support a majority of the non-working populace.

There have been Fascist governments and movements in many lands, under many leaders. All acknowledge the foundations laid by the great Benito Mussolini. But perhaps the greatest Fascist of all time was Sir Oswald Mosley, who built upon those foundations a Fascism that was right for his people, in his time.

And modern Fascists of the 21st Century have built still more, in the spirit of Mosley and his visionary philosophy. But we are faced with a destructive tide of thought and government all over the world. A tide which not only results in the inevitable ruin of a people, but of nations, and of the planet itself. That is the tide we will sweep back, and return our world to natural values. That is our struggle. For as it was wisely said, if we do not fight for life, then life will never be won.

The crisis is upon us now. But we have in our hands the solution. Forward, to Fascist revolution and Fascist victory! New times require new tactics, and the NBU has seen this, and acted accordingly. It is time for a new Fascism, a new movement, a new life! Let us devote all our waking energies to that cause.

FASCISM TODAY

Fascism is often labled by its opponents as a 'right wing reaction', or 'the last resort of capitalism', and is often identified with repressive military regimes. None of this is Fascism, and fortunately in recent years a growing number of even liberal academics are seeking an accurate definition by which Fascism can be objectively studied. Hence, Roger Griffin of Oxford for example has written that whilst Fascism seeks national rebirth this does not imply a conservative 'turning back the clock'. Socialist AJ Gregor points out that Fascism is niether 'pro capitalist nor anti-labour'. Israeli academic Zeev Sternheel has identified 'Fascist Socialism as remaining revolutionary, while rejecting Marxism. The fact is Fascism is a union of both national and social principles, because a true nation is itself a social unit, an extended family.

SOCIALISM OF THE TRENCHES

When the world crisis of capitalism culminated in World War One it produced a new generation radicalised by the war. The most advanced thinkers of the 'right' saw the way in which the war unified their nations above class, party and egotistical divisions. The most advanced thinkers of the 'left', on the other hand, saw that national loyalty is a stronger bond among the workers than 'class war' theories. Both came together in what Mosley called the 'socialism of the trenches'. The returning veterans expecting the 'land fit for heroes' promised them by the old politicians, got instead depression, and once again the old class and party divisions re-emerged. Hence the veterans and youth of many nations spontaneously formed movements combining national and social ideals into what came to be generally called 'Fascism'. Mussolini had himself been a most effective leader of the Italian Socialist Party. Mosley is credited even by liberal historians as being the most brilliant and up-and-coming young politician the Labour Government had, leaving his Cabinet Ministers post because of Labours betrayal of the workers and veterans. In France the largest of the Fascist movements was formed by a particularly popular leader of the Communist Party, Jacques Doriot.

MARXISM AND CAPITALISM

How then can seemingly antagonistic ideologies be considered in spirit and temperament the same, and in need of countering by a 'Third Way'?

Marxism arose in the 19th Century as a reaction to the social and economic upheavals caused by capitalism, but the reaction to capitalism was another form of materialism, which means that all questions of human relations are reduced to a single question of economics. It is this materialism which is the blight of the world, undermining all spiritual, cultural and other values that make humanity more than simply another animal species. Like capitalism, Marxism is also internationalist, seeing nations as hinderances to a world order, just as capitalism sees nations as boundaries to their unhindered worldwide growth.

Barnett and Muller in their

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

LOYALTY – DUTY – SERVICE

Global Reach: The power of and frequently does so". the Multi-National Corporations, state these capitalists see the 'problem of irrational nationalism' with its differences in 'psychological and cultural attitudes' as hindering the development of a global economic structure. "Cultural nationalism is a serious problem because it threatens the concept of the Global shopping centre".

Marx actually supported Free Trade capitalism because it "destroys the former nationalities". Marx was correct in his appraisal: we see today that the global consumer culture is destroying traditional values, so there is increasing similarity between Japanese, American, European, Chinese, New Zealander.... as our food, dress, modes of speech and even our humour are increasingly shaped by global business planners and advertisers, with youth the particular target.

The ultimate aim is what is now called New World Order. Americas most eminent historian, Dr C Quigley wrote, "There is an international network which has no aversion to working with communists

He explained that this network was headed by 'international bankers' whose power rested in their control of money creation, and who aimed at "nothing less than to create a world system of financial control able to dominate the political systems of the world".

REBELLION OF FASCISM

It was Fascism which resisted this global economic domination, by making nations economically self-sufficient (Autarchic). This was the real reason for a World War against Fascism (when capitalism teamed up with communism) and for the continued anti Fascist frenzy 75 years after the wars end. Plutocracy fears Fascism because its been the only system to challenge them whilst returning Peoples to a sense of identity and purpose that both capitalism and communism deny.

We need to be in control of our own future. As Aristotle once said "tolerance and apathy are the last virtues of a dying society", and many people today, although they think they way they do, show apathy towards change, and imply tolerance as a result. We are living in a dying society that seems happy to let the government decide how their future will rest. I dream of a country where people are free to speak as they wish without the fear of imprisonment and the label of a "racist", when all we wish for is a fair and just society where we no longer pander to foreign people who wish to come to OUR country and inflict their own beliefs on us. The state of our country is NOT ok, and I can't sit and watch any longer. Action needs to be made.

So glad that I've discovered you! Terry Martin sent me a friend request on Facebook and then added me to New British Union secret group. In the past I've joined The National Front and Britain First. But it all seems to be about egos and no-one wants to work together. Your movement appears to actually want to bring about change. When I was younger I was an ideological socialist/ communist, actively involved with The Socialist Workers Party but the left do not have a clue concerning real change. I am an admirer of Oswald Mosley and consider that a true revolution can only come from the right. I would love to be a part of what you are seeking to achieve so please do

When the BNP saw a small lived but good surge in support and increase of its numbers it was because it appealed to local issues and local people under the slogan rights for whites it was this that lifted them up to there status of being well known but it was stopped by anti fascist and anti patriot efforts as well as labour and they call themselves the party of the normal Joe. But also combat 18 was formed to protect against these attacks but soon became its own force and ruined BNP efforts to not seem Nazi but due to using a symbol used by Nazi officers and printing off Nazi propaganda under BNP it helped degrade the party largely. So New British Union must not make the same mistakes like that do not allow us to be attacked this can be achieved by it taking part in large scale demos and not running out for a punch up which many BNP members did. We must appeal locally and get involved getting support we need but not getting attacked at the same time its a perfect idea that can't wrong it worked for BNP it can work for NBU without getting attacked by anyone or thing as antifia falls to chaos and labour in crisis and other anti patriot efforts being slammed more online and even on the streets we can have the pleasure of not being attacked unlike BNP when far left attacks were new and interesting to many leftists but now they are old and there true faces are coming out in fact I saw a story about a man in a wheelchair arguing I think with antifa or taking part in a right wing demo one of the thugs threw water on the man. So as they go into chaos we can only rise.

Fascism has always been associated with men of action, our symbol stands for Action in Unity, the best selling fascist newspaper in Britain was called Action. The British Union was led by a man of Action and now today we are calling for your Action men!

Yes NBU wants your original 1960's – 70's Palitoy Action man figures and equipment to help raise funds. We do everything differently to the old failing parties, raising funds is no exception.

We have set aside space in the office to clean, repair and repack vintage Action Man figures which we will then sell on the collectors market to help fund our operations.

Every original item will be welcome as each piece will go to building complete sets of uniform etc. We are building lists of all original releases between 1964 and 1974.

This includes figures, uniforms, equipment, transport and even empty boxes. Our hope is that if hundreds of members have or can find various pieces (tell friends and family we are raising an army, an army of action men!) we will be able to put a number of full complete sets together out of everything that comes in.

We already have some figures with missing limbs waiting to be patched up and returned to duty so please have a look in your attics and sheds or visit some boot sales see if you can pick something up for pennies which we can turn into pounds!

Action Man reports will be included in every months Blackshirt issue.

Repackaged complete sets will also be for sale in NBU Store. So what are you waiting for? Get your troops fell in and give them their marching orders to ;
